CARRANZA SENDS 4000 AGAINST GOVERNOR OF LOWER CALIF.

First Chief Retaliates for Threat of Cantu to At-tack De Factos

WILSON WANTS BROAD RANGE IN NEW PARLEY

Desires Commission to Cover Economic As Well As Military Subjects

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Mex-ican officials here today said that Carranza has mobilized 4000 troops, ready to march against Esteban Cantu, governor of Lower California, in pursuance of the Carranza policy against all rebels. Cantu has held aloof from Carranza. His last act of independence was to declare Lower California neutral in the Mexico-American embroglio. In the meantime Carranza maintained the state in better prosperity and order than any other section of Mexico. He collected taxes regularly. Cantu some time ago issued a warning that he would attack either Villistas or Carranzistas who attempted to enter his territory. He refuses to recognize any authority until he considers that a stable government has been established in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—That President Wilson desires a far-reaching discussion when the representatives of the United States and Mexico get together to solve the Mexican problem became known today. The president does not desire the discussion to be limited merely to military matters. The president, however, is said to be determined to avoid giving Carranza and his generals, or the Mexican public, the slightest impression that the United States wishes to dictate the Mexican National policy. Carranza has been informed of the desire of this government to extend the range of the coming inquiry. The fact that Luis Cabrera, the Mexican minister of finance, together with the man who has taken an active part in the economic life of Mexico, are mentioned prominently as Carranza's choice for the commission is taken here as an indication that Carranza expects the coming discussion to extend beyond the pale of military activity.

NOGALES, July 22.—Hand grenades from the Iloilo Island arsenal have arrived and are stored in the ordnance warehouse here. They are to be distributed to California guardsmen. Dummies will be used for practice to perfect Californians in the use of the new weapon.

YES, NITROPHENYLENE-DIAMINE IS ON FREE LIST, SURE AS FATE

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Probably no one gives a darn, but the following articles are on the free list in the new revenue bill about which Republicans and Democrats are kicking up so much fuss: Acenaphthene, Methylanthracene, methylanthralene. And these are dutiable: Amidonaphthol, emido-salicylic acid, anthraquinone, binitro-naphthalene, binitrochlorbenzol, diani-damine, nitrobenzidine, nitrophenyl-enediamine, phenylhydrazine—note to mention toluenediamine.

75-MILE STRETCH OF MANCHURIA RAILWAY OBTAINED BY JAPAN

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—For $7,000,000 Japan has acquired from Russia seventy-five miles of the main railroad through Manchuria, this valuable concession having been paid for in war munitions, including aeroplanes, motors valued at $1,000,000 and manufactured in Berkeley. News concerning this latest move on the Oriental chess board has reached a few of the best informed Japanese in San Francisco, but could not be af-firmed at the consulate.

BRITISH WOMEN WAR WORKERS IN PARADE URGE CO-OPERATION

LONDON, July 22.—Women who are doing men's work during the war to-day held a monster parade, urging bet-ter co-operation in "fighting for king and country by working at home."

OSTEOPATH IS HELD FOR DEATH OF MAN TREATED WITH 'GAS'

LACENTER, Wash., July 22.—Charged with involuntary man-slaughter as the result of the death of John O. Lindblom, 32, Dr. George L. Harrison, chi-ro-practor and osteopath, is under arrest here today. Dr. Harrison rubbed gasoline on Lindblom's back to cure rheu-matism. The gas caught fire and Lindblom died of the burns. Dr. Harrison, who put out the flames, was severely burned. The fire started, Dr. Harrison claims, while he was massaging the patient with his hands. Com-plaining physicians claim that a spark from an electric vibrator ignited the gasoline.

'HOUSEMAID'S KNEE' DOOMED IN AMERICA; SERVANTS ARE SCARCE

CHICAGO, July 22.—"House-maid's knee" is doomed in Amer-ica. The housemaid problem is crit-ical. Servants come at a premium, if they come at all. Matrons today are facing with alarm the prospect of having to invade kitchens, not to give or-ders, as of yore, but to give culi-nary orders to themselves. Wages for housemaids have gone up. Ten dollars a week is now the most usual stipend. The European war is blamed.

ALLY STEAMER NABBED BY TEUTONS, ORDERED RELEASED BY BERLIN

BERLIN, July 22.—The German authorities today ordered the re-lease of the British steamer Adam, captured by a German torpedo boat, because an investigation dis-closed that the vessel was cap-tured within Swedish territorial waters.

LARGEST LUMBER SHIP IN WORLD IS PLANNED

ASTORIA, Ore., July 22.—Meas-uring 315 feet in length, having a beam of 52 feet and destined for a cargo of 2,500,000 feet of lumber, the largest wooden lumber carrier in the world will be under way here within sixty days, according to H. B. Spear, head of the Ameri-can Shipbuilding Co. Work of building the ways upon which the craft will be built, will be started in ten days.

PARALYSIS PEST TAKES TOLL OF 39 DEATHS IN 24 HOURS

NEW YORK, July 22.—The infant-ile paralysis epidemic today took a big jump. There were thirty-nine deaths in twenty-four hours. Outside cities are panic-stricken with fear. There were 135 new cases today. Yesterday there were only eighty-one new cases reported and deaths were only thirty-two. Despite the fact that they showed no symptoms of the disease, 125 per-sons from Greater New York who ar-rived here, having been barred from Mountain View, N. J., were forced to sleep in the railroad station all night.

BLACKLIST DATA WILL BE GIVEN PRESIDENT WILSON NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON, July 22.—First-hand unofficial information as to just how the British blacklist has hit American firms, is expected to be laid before President Wilson next week. At the White House today it was learned that representatives of the blacklisted firms are gathering data to present to the President. British Ambassador Sir Cecil Spring-Rice conferred with the State De-partment informally this afternoon with Acting Secretary of State Polk. It was announced that they discussed the blacklist situation. No further statement was forthcoming.

CREW SAVED

MONTREY, Cal., July 22.—The crew of the steamer Snayak, which went on the rocks eight miles south of here, today is reported to be safe.

ONLY THREE IN TWO YEARS GO FREE AFTER TRIAL HERE

Remarkable Record of Dis-trict Attorney's Office Is Shown in Report

A remarkable record of efficiency in handling criminal cases is shown in the biennial report of District At-torney L. A. West to the attorney general of the state, a report that is required by law and which has just been made by the district attorney's office of this county for the two years ending June 30, 1916. Out of ninety-seven felony cases taken into the superior court and tried by the district attorney's office, but three cases of acquittal resulted. Those who have followed the sys-tematic, thorough methods followed by District Attorney West and Deputies Koepsel and Eden have often com-mented upon the fact that such a large proportion of prisoners brought into the superior court here plead guilty. That is not due to any un-usual leniency prevalent among per-sons jerked up for crime here, but is due to the fact that the office gets its evidence into such shape that at-torneys frequently see the handwriting on the wall before the trial begins and advise their clients that the quickest and easiest way to face justice is to plead guilty. It is doubtful if there is another dis-trict attorney's office in the state, bar none, that has three prosecutors in it of equal ability with West, Koepsel and Eden. What is more, they are known among attorneys to be ab-solutely fair and square in presenting their cases, with never a suspicion that they would accuse or attempt to con-vict any man merely to make a record. In the ninety-seven cases brought during the two years covered by the report, pleas of guilty were entered in fifty-eight cases. There were seven-teen convictions on trial and three ac-quittals. Twelve cases were disposed of before trial, and seven cases are still pending.

During the two years there was not a single death penalty ordered. Dur-ing that period the county was remark-ably free from murders. Twenty-six men were sentenced to the state peni-tentiary, and fourteen were sent to other institutions. In thirty-five cases fines or probation were ordered.

WILSON, McCORMICK IN CAMPAIGN CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Develop-ment of the plan for electing Demo-cratic members to Congress today brought Chairman Vance McCormick to Washington. He conferred with President Wilson and members of the House and Senate. He will go to New York this evening.

TEUTONS SINK THREE STEAMERS OF ALLIES

LONDON, July 22.—A dispatch to Lloyds from Algiers says that the British steamer Karama, 2354 tons, and the French steamer Cettois, 1200 tons, have been sunk. The crew was land-ed at Algiers. Lloyds also announce the sinking of the British steamship Wolf, 2443 tons gross.

PORTER GETS $8000 TOURIST DIRTY LINEN IN TANGLE OF GRIPS

NEW YORK, July 22.—A negro por-ter today got two valises mixed. Ed-win Huppy is minus $8000 in notes and the porter, who got the notes, is with-out his soiled linen.

40 BILLION MARKS IS SUM ASKED BY KAISER TO EVACUATE BELGIUM

AMSTERDAM, July 22.—Posters have been pasted on the walls of bar-racks in Ghent stating that negotia-tions have been opened between the United States and Germany for the evacuation of Belgium, according to the Echo Belge. According to the post-ers, Germany is prepared to withdraw from Belgium on the payment of an indemnity of 40,000,000,000 marks. The Echo Belge comments sarcastically on this proposal, terming the proposed in-demnity "a mere flea bite."

PLAN TO WAR ON MILITIA, PROVE BODY FAILURE AFOOT IN U.S.

Move Started to Poison Pub-lic Mind Against Federal-ization, Charge

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD (United Press Staff Correspondent)
SAN ANTONIO, July 22.—Deliber-ate and well-defined plans prevail in the United States to prove that the militia is a failure. Americans may expect shortly a definite and subtle newspaper campaign against the mil-itia system. The defects of the mil-itia system will be pointed out; every hitch will be magnified and the Amer-ican mind will be slowly poisoned, if possible, against the federalized mil-itia plan.

Find Many Faults
All supporters of a huge federal army find hundreds of faults with the militia encamped here. While I find the personnel of the regular army the equal of anything in Europe, ready for any trouble, nevertheless, I consider that they naturally enough want every body else in the United States to be a soldier, and are aggressively in favor of the idea that all Americans between 18 and 40 be included in general con-scription, which would go into effect possibly not later than tomorrow. The presence here at San Antonio, and along other points on the border of representatives of various organi-zations that were sent to help the troops in a philanthropic and patriotic spirit, will be used as an argument that the militia is dependent on pri-vate assistance. There's a large num-ber of these would-be helpers. The militia isn't perfect, but it's not so bad as the conscriptionists might lead the public to believe.

SHOOTING OF COLONEL BUTLER TO BE PROBED BY U. S. ARMY OFFICER

SAN ANTONIO, July 22.—Col. J. A. Gaston today was instructed to go to Alpine, Texas, from his headquarters at Marfa, Texas, to investigate the shooting of Lieutenant Colonel M. C. Butler. Colonel Gaston will decide whether Butler was killed "in the line of duty," which will determine whether the widow gets a pension. Colonel Butler was shot and killed by Harry Spannell at Alpine, night before last. Spannell also killed Mrs. Spannell. Dispatches from El Paso, where Span-nell was taken, state that he is appar-ently dazed and frightened. He per-sistently refuses to discuss the affair.

N. Y. MOOSE MAY FUSE WITH DEMOCRATS, IS PRE-CONCLAVE WORD

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 22.—The New York Progressive State Commit-tee may bolt the "Perkins Program" to endorse Hughes for president and Charles S. Whitman for governor and make plans to fuse with the Demo-crats on state and national tickets this fall, at its meeting here today. There have been many indications among the Progressive clubs in New York city and in the organization throughout the state that George W. Perkins, the so-called "delivery" of the Progressives to the Republicans at Chicago and the "proposed delivery" of them to Whitman here today may not be countenanced.

RACER OVERCOME BY HEAT AT KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, July 22.—With Ed-die Rickenbacher leading, twelve cars started the hundred-mile Derby at 1:59 this afternoon. At the end of the ninety-second lap Klein, in his Klein car, went to the pits, overcome by heat. Dave Lewis broke a shock-absorber on his Craw-ford car but continued the race. Rickenbacher was eliminated early in the race.

SOCIETY GIRLS SAVE TRAIN FROM DISASTER

CASTILLA, July 22.—Ethyl Gra-ham, daughter of Judge Thomas F. Graham of the superior court in San Francisco, and Gertrude Mitchell were the means of saving the Shasta limited from disaster. The two young society girls discov-ered a fire raging beside the tracks and rapidly sweeping toward a bridge. They rushed down the track sev-eral miles to the station here and noti-fied G. L. Orby, the agent. He hastily summoned citizens and went to the scene on a hand car. The fire was extinguished, and what would have been a bad wreck was averted.

INFERNAL MACHINE BLAST THROWS BIG CROWD INTO PANIC

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—A bomb in a suitcase, thrown into the ranks of the preparedness pa-raders this afternoon exploded, killing four persons and injuring fifteen. The paraders were thrown into a panic. The explosion oc-curred at the corner of Stewart and Market streets. Four of the injured will probably die. An in-vestigation showed that the suit-case had been equipped with a timing device and set to explode at a certain hour.

WAR DIVERS CONVOY BREMEN; BATTLE OFF U. S. COAST HINTED

BALTIMORE, July 22.—Captain Hinsch filed his clearance papers for the Deutschland today, five minutes before the customs office closed. He also made applica-tion to sail. The submarine was not expected to remain in Patap-sco Bay long thereafter. BALTIMORE, July 22.—A naval battle may be fought at the very doors of America. This is a possibility growing out of the German freighter submarine venture. Two big, armed ocean subma-rines today are reported to be con-voying the Bremen to the capes, intending to protect the Deutsch-land on her trip out. This story, told the United Press by a naval expert here, may mean that the allied fleet will clash with the submarines if Germany plans the bold stroke of torpedoing the allied cordon outside the Ameri-can three-mile limit in order to let the Deutschland out and the Bremen in. Captain Hinsch of the Ozean Rhederei was reticent about the story. He refused to deny or con-firm it. ALLIES LIE IN WAIT NORFOLK, July 22.—The allied patrol off the Virginia capes, prowling restlessly and shifting its position from here to there, like a cat watching a mouse, to-day is waiting for the appearance of German merchant submarines.

HON. CLYDE BISHOP OUT FOR JOHNSON

The Orange County friends of Gov-ernor Johnson are congratulating themselves and the Governor on the accession to the ranks of his support-ers of one of the wheel-horses of the Old Guard—the Hon. Clyde Bishop. Mr. Bishop has never wavered in his loyalty to the G. O. P.—indeed, his loyalty has at all times been empha-sized by the well-known fact that fun-damentally he was an independent with well-developed progressive (not with a big P) tendencies. Mr. Bishop's authoritatively an-nounced support of Governor Johnson for United States Senator will attract all the more attention because it is well known that during Mr. Bishop's session last term as Assemblyman he and the Governor were politically at each other's throats. They are both very positive in their convictions and very outspoken on all public questions—no pussy-footing about either of them. Therefore, when they disagreed on a public question—as they often did—it was but natural that—pursuing the pussy simile—the fur should fly. Bishop told a friend several days ago in an incidental conversation that he was going to vote for Johnson for Senator. When the Register heard of it, Mr. Bishop was interviewed. "Yes," he said, "I am going to vote for the Governor, but I hadn't thought of it as being of any public interest or importance." "But you don't object to our stating the fact in the paper, do you?" he was asked. "Not if you think it would be worth while," he replied. "Do you mind stating the grounds for your support of Governor John-son's Senatorial candidacy?" "My grounds are the same as yours, probably—I want to see a big man on the big job of representing California in the United States Senate." "Will you give the Governor's candi-dacy active support; that is, will you enter the fight in his behalf?" "If the campaign develops along lines that seem to afford me an op-portunity to be helpful, I'll certainly get busy. It isn't in me to keep out of an important political fight, and I suppose I'll be in the thick of this one before it progresses very far." It is reported that Mr. Bishop went to Los Angeles yesterday and had an interview with the Governor, but he could not be located today to verify the report.

$1,500,000 IN SUITS RESULT OF EASTLAND DISASTER YEAR AGO

CHICAGO, July 22.—Suits aggregat-ing nearly $1,500,000 have been filed as a result of the Eastland disaster, just a year ago. Today was the last day for filing of suits.

L. A. PEDDLER IS SHOT IN FIGHT WITH THUGS

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—Attacked by two masked and armed bandits when coming to the city from his ranch home at Puente early today, W. H. Stuart gave battle to the men and as a result finally landed at the Crocker street emergency hospital following a running fight of several blocks. Stuart was bringing a load of vege-tables to market, when two men step-ped out from behind a tree and grab-bing the horse being driven by Stuart, ordered him to throw up his hands. Instead of obeying, Stuart resisted. The bandits retreated and the rancher began a chase, the highwaymen shoot-ing at their pursuer. One of the bullets struck Stuart in the foot. He made his way to his wagon. He notified the police and then was taken to the emergency hos-pital, where his wound was dressed. No trace of the bandits was found by officers.

BERLIN, July 22.—German sub-marines sank six British trawlers July 17, the Admiralty today announced.

HIGH PRAISE GIVEN SEVENTH CALIFORNIA

NOGALES, July 22.—The Seventh California infantry had its first reg-imental drill since the maneuvers at San Francisco last fall. The boys marched with a precision and spirit that was greatly praised by all the officers. Orders have been received here that in addition to the men who have re-latives dependent on them, government inspectors, contractors and other skilled employees, who would be of great-er service to their country at home than in the ranks, and boys who en-listed when they were under 18, whether with or without their parents' consent may be mustered out. The orders are expected to reduce greatly the present total strength of the reg-iment.

French Win as Teutons Send Terrific Attacks Against Entire Line

PETROGRAD, July 22.—Gen-eral Brussloff's Russian armies have proceeded methodically on their way to the Galician border north of Lutsk. From Lutsk north to Zolobitza the Austrian front is surrendering in whole units. In the Riga sector Gen. Kuropatkin's forces have swept past three lines of Gen. Hinden-burg's defense.

RUSS DRIVE AT RIGA IS SLACKENING

BERLIN, July 22.—Russian attacks are growing more feeble on the Riga front, General von Hindenburg today reported. The allies are unable to continue their attacks on the German lines, fol-lowing the repulse of their previous attempts at advance.

LONDON, July 22.—General Sir Douglas Haig today reported British progress in an intense artillery com-bat which has been raging for the past twelve hours.

For the first time since the begin-ning of the allies' great push, the Ger-mans are losing the advantage of de-fense furnished by nature, official advices today indicated.

The Germans will soon be swept from their last vestige of natural shelter and the allies, continuing their offensive, will then shoot down on the enemy from the heights.

Teutons Slow Up

Military experts today pointed out that the German counter-attacks have lost much of their effectiveness. The almost total cessation of the German pressure at Verdun is support-ing the theory that the Crown Prince's army has been drained of its reserves to strengthen the line now under at-tack by the French and British.

In the Peronne sector the Teutons face the menace of a flanking move-ment in a crotch of the battle line from Peronne south to Craonne and if the southward swing of the French arm in the direction of Chaules con-tributes a retirement must be considered by the enemy from the villages of Roye Lassigny, Ham, Noyon and possibly La Fere.

French Victors

The Paris war office today reported that German attacks on many sectors had been repulsed. The enemy at-tempted to advance at Moulin and Soustouen, bombarded Fumin and Fleury and attacked Dambloup and St. Die.

The official French communique an-nounced that a French air squadron Friday dropped 115 shells on Metzbe-lion, in the Vosges mountains, inflict-ing great damage.

The official outline of the day's fight-ing shows that a series of desperate unsuccessful counter attacks by the Germans on various parts of the front were launched.

PYRO BLAST IN BIG POWDER PLANT KILLS 12, HURTS 8 IN N. J.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Twelve workmen were reported killed and eight injured in an explosion at the Hercules Powder Company plant at Kenilworth, N. J., early today. The explosion was followed by a fire which destroyed or damaged several of the buildings, among them the dryhouse. Those killed were all foreigners. They were employed in transferring pyro, a high explosive, from small trucks into the building for storage. The explosion rocked the country for miles. The dryhouse was completely de-stroyed. It contained 30,000 pounds of pyro.

WALKER WHITESIDE AT THE WEST END 'THE MELTING POT'

Walker Whiteside will be seen in "The Melting Pot" Sunday and Monday at the West End Theater. The picture is in six reels and is said to be far more complete than the play. "The Melting Pot" in moving pictures is conceded to be one of the greatest achievements of the screen and follows the book practically word for word.

Since this was made one of the leading features of the Chautauqua, no doubt everyone who saw the play or has read the book will surely wish to see the film version. At first it was scheduled for a one-day showing (Sunday), but owing to the numerous requests made upon Manager L. A. Schlesinger, he has arranged to give "The Melting Pot" a two-days' run with a matinee each day, Sunday and Monday, at the usual price of admission, 5 and 10 cents.

EDNA GOODRICH IN BIG BATTLE SCENE

When a woman fights she can be more savage and a great deal more dangerous than a man. Howard Davies, who plays the "villain" opposite Edna Goodrich, the star, in "The Making of Maddalena," knows this to his sorrow.

As "Maddalena" this Morisco star is forced to battle with the big drunken ruffian and the way in which Miss Goodrich goes for this player is an eye-opening revelation of what strength a normal woman may possess. As a display of female fighting spirit it is magnificent. Those players did not come from the ordeal without injury for Miss Goodrich sustained a severe bruising and Davies carried the scars of the conflict for weeks.

The desperate realism of the scene is one source of the strong dramatic vitality of this superb Morisco-Paramount production that is the attraction at the West End theater on Tuesday and Wednesday.

"THE EVIL THEREOF" COMES TO WEST END

Upon the assumption that the screen is greater than both pulpit and press in its comprehensive power for the dissemination of great moral truths, the Famous Players Film Company's current contribution to the Paramount Program, "The Evil Thereof," is in the nature of a powerful dramatic sermon. This notable subject, written by Channing Pollock and Renold Wolf, combines under stirring circumstances a story full of fidelity to life and the impulses and passions of mankind, with a motif of strange spiritual appeal.

In its transcendent realism and unescapable truthfulness, this great photoplay, which is the main attraction at the West End Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday, exerts an impression over the mind that is certain to leave a lasting and beneficial

A SCENE FROM "INSPIRATION" FIVE ACT MUTUAL MASTERPIECE MADE BY THANHOUSER

"INSPIRATION" COMING TO SANTA ANA AUG. 2

"Inspiration," a Thanhouser masterpiece, carries some very remarkable double exposure work. A scene in which the beautiful model emerges from the relief of a tiny medal is particularly effective. Incidentally, the picture will prove of interest from a technical phase. It gives in detail the sculpturing process of making "life casts." The picture shows close attention to verity. Many of the scenes were taken in the studio of a prominent eastern sculptor. And of course Audrey Munson, the star, did not have to act in her role of a model. She is one.

"Inspiration" comes to the Princess Theater on August 2 and 3.

Rex Beach's Greatest Story

"The Ne'er-Do-Well," filmed as a spectacular drama by the Selig Polyscope Company, is considered by many as Rex Beach's greatest story. In "The Ne'er-Do-Well," fascinating Panama scenery is shown, including the work of digging the Panama Canal, the interiors of old Spanish homes, glimpses of the interior of the tropical jungle, and other interesting nooks and corners. The cast in "The Ne'er-Do-Well" includes Kathlyn Williams, Eugene Bessner, Wheeler Oakman, Frank Clark and others. All most the same cast of stars that added to the realism of "The Spoilers," Beach's other great story filmed by the Selig Company, appear in "The Ne'er-Do-Well." Charming Kathlyn Williams enacts the strongest character role in her career as Mrs. Stephen Cortlandt, the woman diplomat. The role of Kirk Anthony, the Ne'er-do-well, is enacted by Wheeler Oakman. This wonderful Selig production has been booked at the Temple Theater for two days, next Thursday and Friday, July 27 and 28, matinees and evenings.

'BIRDS' FEATURED ON CLUNE'S BILL

Tomorrow Mabel Taliaferro's great picture, "The Snowbird," will be featured at Clune's theater.

Opening Thursday for three days will come Francesco & Jackie, and Jackie is a bird that talks. On the same bill is Margaret Caraher, who calls herself the Australian Nightingale. These offerings make quite a variety of "birds."

DOROTHY GISH CAST AS "SCHOOLMA'AM" IN FILM AT CLUNE'S

One of the very latest Triangle features is "The Little School Ma'am," in which Dorothy Gish, the elf-like and lovable young favorite, stars. The film is coming to Clune's on Monday and Tuesday. It takes audiences back to their boyhood days when they tramped barefooted to the little red school house, or as shy maids they brought wild flowers to the village school teacher.

Wherever this picture has been shown it has been enjoyed, for it brings back the spirit of youth, of the days when there were no cares nor worries.

The twenty little Triangle kiddies in "The Little School Ma'am" are lovable, at work and at play. And no less lovable is Miss Gish as the dainty village school ma'am.

AT THE TEMPLE
"What Happened at 22," the mystery drama of the year, from the pen of Paul Wilstach, and produced by the Frohman Amusement Company, under the directorship of George Irving, with Frances Nelson and Arthur Ashley in the star roles is the attraction at the Temple theater tonight and tomorrow. It is a World Film Corporation's five-part feature, mystifying, gripping and unusually original in details and denouement.

REMAKE CITY FOR PICTURE Build Village Square About Blacksmith Shop

Several streets of the city of Burbank, Cal., were transformed so as to serve as the setting for a scene in the William Fox production, "A Man of Sorrow," starring William Farnum, which was directed by Oscar C. Apfel. In hunting for a suitable location in which to take a village square scene, Lester Scott, Jr., Mr. Apfel's assistant, found an old blacksmith shop standing in the center of Burbank. It was just the thing needed and he immediately set about obtaining the consent of city officials to build a town square around the blacksmith shop.

Realizing the publicity the city would gain through the pictures, consent was given and the construction of the square was begun. A huge fountain was built and houses were erected, with the blacksmith shop forming the center of the group.

"A Man of Sorrow" will be seen at the Temple theater next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Music - A - Necessity - For - Moving - Pictures"

Frieda Hempel, Star of the Metropolitan Opera, Declares That the Highest Art of Motion Pictures Will Not Be Attained Until All Companies Synchronize Their Musical Accompaniment of a Play With Its Action—In an Interview the Great German Soprano Chooses Music For the Screen.

Frieda Hempel, Star of the Metropolitan Opera.

Illuminated on the white screen of a moving picture house, the man whose motive was revenge pushed open the French windows and entered from the balcony; approaching the beautiful sleeping girl, he was seen to uncork a bottle of vitriol. The audience, thrilled with the situation, breathlessly waited, until—

"Rum-tum-tiddle!" The house piano player had chosen a musical selection for the scene.

When Frieda Hempel, the popular and beautiful prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera, was told that the Paramount Pictures Corporation, realizing the enormous importance of having proper musical selections played with every scene of their releases, were sending out complete scores with every play they released, she said in her positive way:

"Music is a prime necessity for the future success of moving pictures. In these stories of silence music must take the place of the spoken word. It plays the feelings of the drama straight to the heart. What we miss in the moving picture theatre is the voices of the actors, but now you tell me these are supplied by the great literature of music. In Richard Wagner's music there is everything adaptable to any drama ever conceived. And I can imagine nothing so suitable for a scene in a Pullman Sleeper than some of Bach's music. Take the music of 'Die Walküre'; it applies itself wonderfully to the interpretation of cowboy pictures. And if you want music for love scenes, why don't you take the love motif from Tristan and Isolde? I think that eventually you will develop certain chief motifs taken from great composers that will become recognizable in course of time by motion picture audiences."

Frieda Hempel, star of the Metropolitan Opera House, had spared enough time from her favorite game, Mouschel, to tell the interviewer what she thought of the very latest step forward in the motion picture industry. The Fraulein's fuzzy little dog yelping around suggested an ideal musical synecdoche for "The Call of the Wild," but a few pats from the diva and his majesty ceased growling.

"You see, Fraulein Hempel," explained the interviewer, "The Paramount Pictures Corporation has taken one of the most important steps forward in the industry. They have arranged with Schirmer, the music publisher, to select scores for their pictures, each film on their program to be accompanied by a complete bound book. In other words, in more than 2,000 moving picture theatres of America the audiences are going to hear night after night selections from Mendelssohn, Strauss, Wagner, Delibes, Saint Saens, Victor Herbert—all the great composers, dead and living. These selections will absolutely match the mood of the screen. Not only is the artistic taste of an audience now being given the chance to gratify itself, but the coupling up of the best music with motion picture plays opens a field for a better understanding of the drama."

"These scores will be so arranged that they can be used for any size orchestra from a single pianist to the largest symphony orchestra."

"These scores will be furnished to the exhibitors by the exchanges upon a rental basis. They will mean the saving of the effect of the film from ruination through the inappropriateness of its musical accompaniment."

Fraulein Hempel, who had been attentively listening, clapped her hands.

"That is good," she exclaimed. "By the proper adaptation of music the photoplay house will be raised to a much higher artistic plane. But what an interesting problem it must be for a musician to select from the musical history of the world, themes that will adapt themselves to some of the intense dramatic situations one sees in the better pictures! But how difficult it would be to find suitable music to describe the 'Mysterious Hand' or 'The Perils of Polly.' I am mentioning titles that I have never seen, but which may sufficiently interpret my idea.

"I can't understand why this important question of the appropriate music for the more pretentious motion picture productions has not before been seriously considered. All the sentiment and duty of feeling in human nature is most perfectly expressed in music. In fact, it is only imperfectly expressed in stories and in drama. No, I do not even exempt such a master playwright as Sardou, the great French author. His play 'Diplomacy,' which I have just seen put into motion pictures, is, of course, a classic, but much of the deeper undercurrent of the play was brought out for me in the phrasing of the incidental music chosen especially for that purpose. Undoubtedly, music takes the place in these stories of silence of the spoken word. It plays the feeling of the drama straight to the heart."

"Miss Hempel, what composer do you think has written the most adaptable music for the motion picture plays?"

"I suppose that Richard Wagner is the only master who has applied literature to music," replied Miss Hempel. "It seems to me that in Wagner's music there is everything adaptable to any drama ever conceived. Of course the 'Wedding March' of Lohengrin has become the recognized symbol of the world over, of every joyous scene, or joyous for that matter, at the altar. That in itself is a new testimony of the universal appeal which Wagner has made to the sentiment of the world, upon its most vital subject—marriage."

"What emotion of the most popular kind, has not Wagner interpreted to the improvement of any other composer in the world? I should like to suggest to motion picture producers that there is no greater love theme ever written in music than the love motif of 'Tristan and Isolde.' It should become as universally inspiring and popular as his 'Wedding March.' It is quite remarkable to realize how easily most of the music in Wagnerian opera can be applied to the most thrilling of modern photoplays."

"For instance, the 'Ho, Yo, He!' music of the 'Walküre' with its stirring vitality of open air and god-like courage, applies itself wonderfully to the interpretation of cowboy pictures of those beautiful outdoor scenes taken in your western country, in the hills of California. Wagner never saw them. He gained no inspiration from the great stretches of prairie and sky and valley, which your western country so amply provides, but he had the universal imagination of great genius. He felt all things that were possible to human feeling."

"You remember the wonderful music written for 'Hans Sachs' in Wagner's Opera 'The Meistersingers.' I have always thought that that music would apply itself to some of those home scenes I have witnessed in photoplays, where the masterful philosophy of heart is often shown in the character of the father. Of course, in these modern stories that are put before us in the motion picture houses there is perhaps a purpose beyond the mere suspense of story writing, but I was particularly impressed with the fact that in this production of 'Diplomacy' I enjoyed the poetic feeling in the play because of the ideal music selected, which I had not felt when I saw the play produced abroad. You see, music will always idealize, and that is something we can never get too much of."

"Of course, when the ball-room scene came I instinctively expected to hear the 'Blue Danube Waltz' by Strauss, and when the wedding scene came of course I also expected to hear Wagner's Wedding March. But I had never considered Mendelssohn as an inspiration to intrigue. Yet I found the music selected for that big scene in the play in Dora's apartment from 'Hebriden' by this composer was marvellously appropriate. So also was the serenade by Moszkowski for another moment of intrigue in the scene between 'Baron Stein,' the villain, and 'Countess Zizka.' The selection from 'Musetta' by C. Saint-Saens was ideal for the symbolic vision of Dora. As I watched the progress of the play, with its many opportunities for improvement over the mere theatrical production on the stage, I couldn't help wondering what the great Sardou would have thought of it himself. Sardou, by the way, would have made a wonderful scenario writer for moving pictures, wouldn't he?"

"But, Miss Hempel, are there no

"Sardou, Author of 'Diplomacy,' Would Have Made a Wonderful Scenario Writer."

other composers whom you think adaptable to motion pictures?"

"Why not? Take Bach's music, for instance. I can imagine nothing so suitable for a scene in a Pullman sleeping car than some of his fugues. The music of 'The Barber of Seville' would be excellent for thrilling situations. The music of Verdi's operas is perhaps too lyrical for the purposes of interpretation of moving picture dramas. There must be substance and thought to the music selected for a big dramatic story, not only tunefulness and emotion.

"The trouble in this country has been, I am told, that it is almost impossible to get pianists and organists to play good music in the average motion picture house. In Berlin and other European cities, so I understand, it is the custom for advanced pupils studying in the musical conservatories to take orchestral positions in moving picture houses. In Berlin, it is essentially important that the music must be good, and that it be well played. The public taste demands that. It seems to me, that there must be a great opening in this country for the large number of musical students to help out their musical education by playing in these moving picture houses in the evenings. And with carefully chosen scores, like Paramount's how charming—what an appeal to people who like music, as well as pictures it would be!"

"I firmly believe that music is a prime necessity for the future success of motion pictures, and that the more beautiful the music the deeper will be the under current of feeling stirred, and the more sincere will the audience believe the screen story they are watching, to be. I think eventually you will develop certain motifs taken from the great composers that will become recognizable at once by motion picture audiences. For instance, my suggestion is to make love motif of all love scenes to be the one I have chosen from 'Tristan and Isolde.' Of course, I am a singer and my profession is music, but I do not believe that any human beings are fully nourished with the savor of idealism that is necessary to perfect happiness, unless they hear and appreciate the finest music written."

Lyric Re-opens Tuesday With Firemen's Benefit

Next Tuesday the Lyric will reopen with a benefit for the Santa Ana firemen's fund. Manager Hurlburt has provided an extra good program for the occasion and there will be a continuous performance from 1 p. m. to 11 p. m., seven complete shows.

The total receipts of the opening day go to the firemen's fund, which, in itself, should insure a crowded house at every performance. But this is not the only reason you should see this show for you are going to get big value in entertainment.

Big Benefit Bill
"The Locked Door," a fire prevention romance, in three parts, is a film of thrilling interest. It was taken in collaboration with the fire department assisted by the police department of greater New York.

Added to the big three-part fire picture there will be Charlie Chaplin in "A Night in the Show" and a laugh is guaranteed every minute.

Then there is "The Stingaree," a great western drama, making a show of pleasing variety and exceptional interest.

The Lyric has been given a thorough going over in every respect and when it reopens next Tuesday it will be better than ever. The seating capacity has been enlarged, the operating room has been rebuilt on an absolutely fire-proof plan and the equipment is all of the latest and best to be had.

Ticket-Selling Contest
Boys and girls who wish to compete in the ticket-selling contest for the firemen's benefit are requested to call at the fire department this evening or early Monday morning. There will be prizes offered for those selling the largest number of tickets.

Charlie Chaplin Will Be At the Princess Soon

One of the best things booked for the Princess for the near future is which will be shown next Wednesday Charlie Chaplin in "The Fireman," which will be shown next Wednesday and Thursday.

Departing from his usual mode of procedure, Chaplin has worked into this production a number of unusually sensational scenes, which have been filmed on an elaborate scale. These scenes depict the burning of two houses, both of which have been condemned by the Los Angeles Fire Department. They were purchased outright by the management of the Chaplin-Mutual studios and destroyed by fire.

For the filming of "The Fireman," the Mutual's comedian temporarily abandoned his usual screen make-up and in practically all of the scenes appears in the garb of a fireman, which, to say the least, is one of the most excruciatingly funny of its kind ever witnessed on the screen.

Chaplin's antics on the fire pole, used by the firemen in sliding from the dormitory to the main floor at the alarm signal, furnishes an avalanche of laughs, the comedian outdoing by far anything he has ever attempted in this particular line.

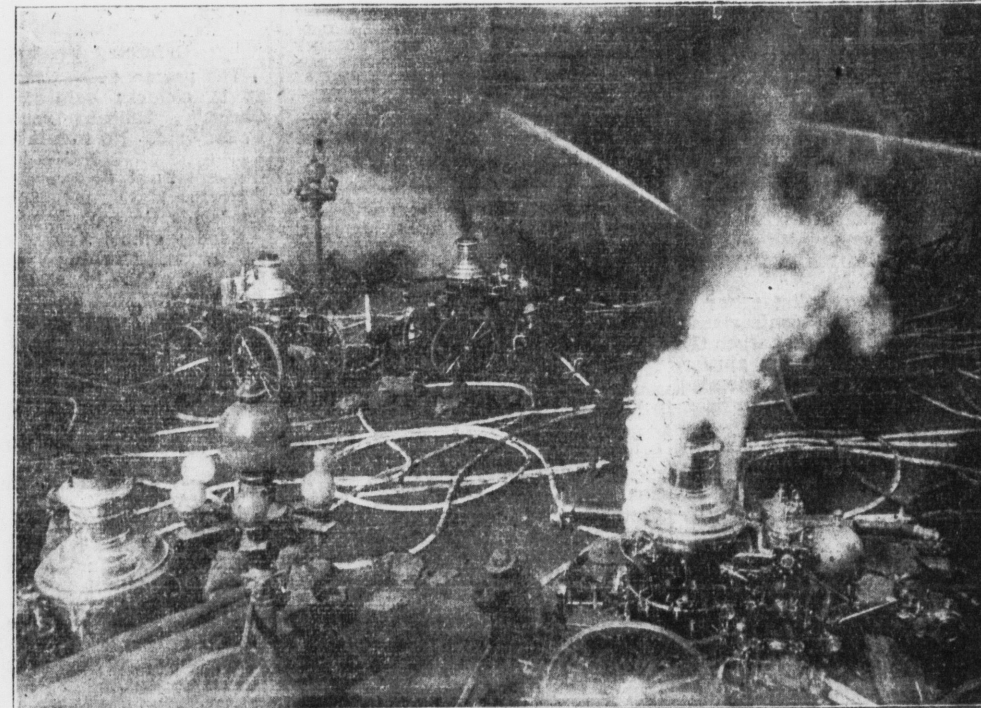

GASOLINE SHIPMENT SMASHES A RECORD

FULLERTON, July 22.—At Stewart station in La Habra the Union Oil Company refinery made the largest shipment this week in the history of the company. It consisted of forty carloads of gasoline, gas oil and distillate. The big plant is operated day and night and a force of twenty-five men is employed. Five cottages have been erected recently by employees of the refinery, who are making their homes there.

LICENSED TO WED
A marriage license was issued in Los Angeles yesterday to Marcy J. McCurdy, 23, and Katherine E. Kelley, 21, both of Fullerton.

PREPARE BUYERS IN ADVANCE

The astute merchant realizes the danger that the public may be bewildered by the variety of his stock. Aimless customers rarely buy much. They don't want to purchase anything of importance without consideration in advance.

A woman may come down town and visit the stores without much definite idea of what she proposes to get. She has a certain need in her mind, but no conception of where it can best be filled. Her half-formed purpose is upset by the multitude of offerings. She may want a certain type of dress goods, but she fritters her time away at novelties that presented themselves to her eye as she visits the store, and she may buy none of them.

The kind of customer that pays is the one whose mind was made up before leaving home, as the result of intelligent reading of a newspaper advertisement. She forms the impression that a certain need can be met at a certain store within a certain range of prices.

The advertisement indicates alertness in seeking good bargains on the part of the merchant, seasonableness and attention to style. She enters the store with the preconception that it will supply her needs.

That kind of customer is waited on with the minimum of friction and the minimum expenditure of time by clerks. The chances that she will leave the store without making a purchase are minimized.

At least she is committed to make a thorough examination of stock, and when that is done it is the usual thing to complete the purchase.

The stores that advertise constantly deal with a great body of people who visit the place with preconceptions favorable to buying. It is the best kind of people to do business with.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Only a Fable
It befell that a certain Villa sunk into disfavor for that he was thief and assassin, and particularly, that leading a band of his kind into peacable territory, he slew divers innocent persons, burning and stealing their substance.

Now this Villa was a citizen of a country supposed to be ruled by a be-whiskered don, and to the don Uncle Sam, whose people had been despoiled, made protest, saying: "Behold, this Villa has outraged my peace and dignity, slain my people, and taken refuge in your domain. Now, either do you apprehend and duly rebuke this offender, or verily will I myself undertake the mission, knocking, if need be, sundry spots from all who resist."

To which the don made answer: "Truly am I full of sorrow that this thing should have come upon you, and straightway will I lay me this Villa by the heels."

Thereupon the don, being a liar of parts, proceeded to do contrariwise, even protecting Villa, so that when the armed minions of Uncle Sam appeared, they were faced by two enemies, the don and Villa, which gave them pause.

Then the don, pointing to the north, said to Uncle Sam: "Get thee hence, for Villa is no longer a bandit, but brother of my soul, and has joined with me to expel the cursed gringo."

Yet was not Uncle Sam immediately satisfied and glad, and he said: "Peace be unto thee, most noble don, I perceive my error, and that I am a trespasser. But tell me ere I go why thou lodest in thy throat, and whis-kers."

"Because of a constitutional habit," the don made answer. "Do not seek by pretending to have believed me to excuse your temerity, for that I am a liar was known to all the world aforetime."

So Uncle Sam, regarding himself up against it, as the saying is, recalled his forces, and they withdrew, but without loud trumpeting, for the feeling of pride did not stir them. "We had not thought," they said, "to be bluffed by a lying and unshorn greaser."

Soon the don, nothing forbidding him, moved his capital to Washington, and, appointing Villa secretary of state, ruled unmolested.

Limitations
There cannot be statutory limitation of religious matter sent through the mails.

Nevertheless, when a fakir posts blessed handkerchiefs warranted to cure rheumatism, melancholia or freckles, Uncle Sam grabs him. For in the stern eyes of Uncle Sam, fak-ing isn't the real thing in religion.

What Mrs. Astor Lost
Too much fuss seems to be made over the fact that young Mrs. Astor married the man of her choice, who, as one writer touchingly expresses it, possessed only "a few paltry millions," and named Dick. "What a name for an Astor," the same commentator exclaims.

He goes on to say that the tendency of people generally would be to be "proud of a garment on which an Astor had spit."

I do not believe such drool. On the contrary, I believe that an Astor could spit on the garment of the average citizen only at considerable risk.

The commentator concludes as to this rather commonplace marriage: "It was colossal. It will be classic. Flubdub and slush. Doesn't such stuff make you sick?"

His Master Mind
"The master mind of psychics" takes the trouble to send a circular in this direction.

Very good of him, knowing that he has such a mind, to be willing to give the public the benefit of it for the small sum of fifty cents, half a dollar.

His address is withheld, for when a sucker has the sum mentioned it is a sort of duty to protect him.

Separated
For many years she piled up stacks of gold;

If she could help it, never spent a cent.

The net result in one brief line is told: The coin is still all here, but she has went.

Exercise
Hannis Kohelmaier joined the New York militia on the understanding, as he says, that his sole duty would be participation in athletic events.

Surely, to march with a fifty-one-pound pack partakes of exercise. The gentleman quit, and the real reason is believed to have been chilly toes.

AN AGRICULTURAL STUDENT

Now on Sunday to the country
The city chap will go,
And he teaches to the farmer
Everything he does not know—
How to milk the drakes and chickens
And fat the hogs on hay;
Then to mow his shoats in August
And clip his hens in May.

"Now the horses, too, and cattle
Should ne'er be fed on steak;
Neither should they eat tomatoes—
"Would be a great mistake.
It is wrong again on feathers
That in winter they should lie;
Also never in midsummer
Should they eat ice cream and pie.

"When you put your oats in pickle
Just mind you sour them thrice;
And, in grinding up potatoes,
To mix them well with ice.
Then a secret, too, for butter
(Stronz as a little oak),
Is to keep your milk in water
A month or two at soak."

All these things and several others
Both he tell unto his host,
Till his eyes they rolled in frenzy,
As if they thought the granger dreamed
Some maniac is loose,
That this learned city rooster
Is from the calaboose.

In the morning the farmer messages
A telegraph to town
That he'd got a crazy patient
"Who hadn't ort be round!"
Says the man who comes to get him:
"Insane! Well—no—not he;
He's an agricultural student,
But not from Kankakee."

Thinks Citizenship Test Too Severe
Editor Register: Talk about the horrors of war!

Referring to an article in your paper of July 17, would wish to inquire: Could any normal person with a heart in his bosom in truth really live up to such unnatural obligations, demanding if need be, to shoot deliberately and intentionally at his own father or brothers in case of war?

Question (by Judge W. H. Thomas in addressing one of the recent applicants for citizenship, who as yet still has his father as well as several brothers in Canada)—"And suppose that you took up arms for the United States and in the heat of battle you would see your father, or one of your brothers, fighting in the ranks of the enemy—would your allegiance to this country be strong enough to take a shot at him?"

Answer—"It would," was the firm reply.

Although this was answered in the affirmative, could it be the test were actually given them, anyone of heart carry this out? Can such an unnatural obligation of such extreme, be classed under either wholesome patriotism or Christianity?

Though an American by birth, yet taking this lesson "with all its severity" directly home, I know I could never administer such toward my loved ones—rather kill me. Could you?

News From Co. L

NOGALES, Ariz., July 18.—We are still down here on the watch, and in the opinion of most of them that is about all we are going to do—watch and wait.

Some of the boys in our company organized a company of what they called the horse marines. It was some bunch, too.

Louis King was the commander and was called Captain Jinx. Corporal "Fuzzy" Mix was drummer, Bill Davidson was the other part of the band, Earl King and "Pinto" Henderson were privates. They certainly made a lot of laughter by their funny drills.

It commenced raining at noon today and everyone beat it for the tents. It may not last long, however. The rain is accompanied by thunder and lightning.

We were instructed this morning in squad right and left movements and the right-about and left-about movements, by a regular army sergeant. The boys are picking up rapidly and learning fast.

We are supposed to have another shift in the arm before long. Some of the boys dread it, but we all have to take it once more.

"Bill" Rinner has just made the remark that he is going to brave the weather to see if the mail has come in.

Admiral Billy is getting in fine fine shape for a fight. None of the boys care to play with him much any more, on account of his strong butting tactics.

The bantam rooster is getting fat on the scraps of bread and potatoes that are fed to him by the men. He is getting to be quite a pet among us. "Tex" Isbell had the misfortune to break his cot and is busy fixing it with wire and wood. He is doing an artistic job.

The company L boys got mixed up in a ball game with Company I yesterday afternoon and were beaten by the score of 14 to 11. As this is the first game our boys have played, they don't feel bad about the score. They will do better next time.

Harry Hossler, our Santa Ana friend who is now with the regulars, was over and ate "chow" with us the other day. "Deany" as most of the boys call him, comes over to see us several times a week.

Some of the boys are playing cards. They all are after Charles Stearns' goat.

The Frye brothers are invited out Wednesday to visit H. R. Bristol, a former resident of Santa Ana.

The Regimental is having mess tables built for the men. We expect to have ours within a few days, after which there will be no more sitting on the ground.

Private F. H. MITCHELL.

NOGALES, Ariz., July 19, 1916.

It has been just one month today since the boys were called to the colors. We have been down on the border two weeks, preceded by a week in Sacramento and a week at home.

It is raining here again this afternoon. It begins about the same time every day.

Yesterday the artillery camp was struck by lightning. Four men were sent to the hospital and eight others were slightly injured. One tent was pretty well shot up.

The men received their final shot in the arm yesterday and those upon whom the vaccinations did not take were vaccinated over again. The boys are mighty glad they are through with these ordeals.

This morning there was a large shipment of Kelly-Springfield trucks unloaded up town. One would judge that there are some great preparations going on for something.

The cook shack was remodeled this morning and the cooks now say they can get a meal without swimming.

HER LEFT SIDE HURT
—No family remedy enjoys a better reputation among intelligent women than Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. Laura Beall, Plattsburg, Miss., writes: "Last April I got in bad health; my left side hurt all the time. The doctor's medicine didn't seem to do me any good. I had symptoms of Bright's disease. I took two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel all right now." They quickly relieve backache, rheumatism, aches and pains in a natural way—by driving the poison out of the system. Contain no habit-forming drugs. Rowley Drug Co., Advertisement.

WHY ENDURE SUMMER COLDS?
It isn't necessary to have a stuffed head, running nose. To cough your head off, as it were. All you need do is to use Dr. Bell's Fine Tar Honey. The soothing and healing balsams open the clogged air passages and in a short time you get relief and start on the road to recovery. Your nose stops running, you cough less and you know you are getting better. Get a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left as a cough and cold insurance.

WITHDRAWING STATEMENT IS ISSUED BY MRS. I. D. MILLS

Withdrawing from the Assembly contest, Mrs. I. D. Mills has issued the following statement:

To the Voters of Orange County:
While I appreciate the honor of the thought of my friends—whom I like to think are not confined to any party—who expressed that thought by nominating me for the Assembly from Orange county, I do not lose sight of the responsibility that overshadows all honor everywhere. I have never been a woman to sacrifice principle to any prospective emoluments, and while I have always been willing and ready to serve the best interests of humanity—the betterment of humanity—cause—the best interests of my greatest efforts, I would not jeopardize it for the sake of so-called honor.

To my friends everywhere I will say that I never yet sought responsibility through official position and I never can do so. I only desire to serve where I can and where needed if capable.

To every voter of Orange county I give this as my greatest desire and wish, that by your ballots in November you help make our beloved California dry and thus serve the present generation and make the dear old state a safe one for future generations.

The prohibition nomination for the Assembly came to me unsought and was much of a surprise to me. The request that I accept the nomination was in itself a great honor and is much appreciated, but owing to circumstances I must decline to accept, for my greatest ambition is to render service to the cause by my ballot and influence, but not as a party nominee.

Yours for service,
ELIZABETH H. MILLS.
Orange, California.

Crawford Declines to Become Candidate and Endorses W. W. Simon

Late yesterday afternoon Thos. Crawford of Anaheim delivered to Judge W. W. Simon of Santa Ana the following self-explanatory letter:

Anaheim, Cal., July 21, 1916.
Mr. W. W. Simon,
Santa Ana, California.

Dear Sir:
I have been informed that the necessary petitions and other papers have been filed with the county clerk of Orange county to place your name on the primary election ballots as a candidate for the office of member of the Assembly from Orange county.

Similar petitions have been signed and filed with the county clerk to place my name before the voters of the county as a candidate for this office.

I had consented to the use of my name in this manner only on the condition that there was no other candidate for this office opposed to the liquor traffic, and have repeatedly stated that if there was any such candidate I would refuse to permit my name to go on the ballot. This I could accomplish, even if petitions in favor of myself as a candidate were filed, by refraining from filing the necessary candidates' affidavit, without which my name could not appear on the ballot.

Therefore, since your complete nomination papers have been filed, I will not take the steps necessary to cause my name to go on the ballot.

In this connection I recall that a similar situation existed two years ago, when you had intended to become a candidate, but remained out of the race because there was another "dry" candidate in the field, as you did not wish to divide the "dry" vote and thus allow a candidate to be elected who was not opposed to the liquor traffic. Unfortunately others did not follow your example, with the result that we failed to elect a "dry" candidate to the office of assemblyman.

This year I believe we will be able to avoid a division of the "dry" vote of the county, as I am informed that the candidate proposed by the Prohibition party will take the same action as that which I have decided upon, viz: to refrain from filing the necessary candidates' affidavit, without which the name cannot appear on the ballot.

As you are no doubt aware, from articles which have appeared from time to time in responsible newspapers of this county, I have at no time had any desire or inclination to become a candidate for member of the Assembly, nor have I at any time taken any action whatever to cause my name to appear on any election ballot of any party. I merely consented to the use of my name as candidate in the event that no other candidate opposed to the liquor traffic was in the field. It is true that one newspaper, ostensibly opposing the liquor traffic, but acting in the interests of a candidate favored by the "wet" forces, has persistently attempted to make it appear that I was actively seeking several party nominations for the office of assemblyman, and even went so far as to state falsely that I had filed petitions for myself as a candidate for nomination on several tickets. But this was a very silly—only evidence of mental infirmity as well as political depravity.

I am a Republican and intend to vote for Mr. Hughes for president at the election in November. But in the matter of electing a member of the Assembly from Orange county I cannot see any good reason why partisanship, as applied to national politics, should be a controlling factor. Neither the tariff question, nor any other national issue, is involved in the election of a member of the Assembly. State issues do not follow the same lines as national issues.

In this state this year, as was the case two years ago, the real issue before the people is the suppression of the liquor traffic.

Should we secure state-wide prohibition by constitutional amendment at the election next November, we want adequate legislation to make prohibition effective throughout the state. In the event that we fail to secure the adoption of the prohibition amendment, the majority of the people of Orange county want a law enacted which will permit them to enact prohibition for this county.

The election returns of two years ago furnish sufficient evidence that a very large majority of the people of Orange county are opposed to the liquor traffic.

As I know that you hold similar views on this important issue, I can assure you of my hearty support during the campaign, more especially in view of your generous and public-spirited action in remaining out of the race two years ago. I trust that all who are opposed to the liquor traffic in Orange county will agree with my sentiments in this matter and will unite in conducting a thoroughly harmonious and effective campaign for your election to the office of member of the Assembly, which I am sure you will fill with credit to yourself and for the welfare of the people of Orange county, not only in the matter of suppressing the liquor traffic but also in other matters affecting the interests of your constituents.

Sincerely yours,
THOMAS CRAWFORD.

RESPONSE GENEROUS

Relief Committee for Company L Families Does Good Work

The generous response of the public to the call for aid for the families of Company L is highly gratifying to the committee in charge of the distribution. The dinner served at the G. A. R. hall on Wednesday by the ladies of the C. A. R., the Daughters of Veterans and the Woman's Relief Corps, netted the substantial fund of $75.

Next Friday evening a benefit entertainment is to be given at Elks hall under the competent leadership of Ernest Crozier Phillips, in which the very best local talent will participate. Tag day is also being arranged for by a committee composed of J. C. Metzgar and R. L. Bisby.

The committee has expended among nine families the sum of $205.

The following is the total list of subscriptions and donations received up to date, leaving a balance in the treasury of $75.45:

L. S. L. A. Schlessinger	$10.00
C. W. McNaught	10.00
Mrs. R. A. Cushman	5.00
Mrs. E. M. Nealey	5.00
Mrs. A. J. Crookshank	5.00
Cash	1.20
Mrs. Stetson	.50
Cash	.50
The Misses Enderle	5.00
West End Theater Benefit	26.25
J. A. Cranston	5.00
John Cubbon	5.00
Cash	25.00
Cash	25.00
Mrs. M. M. Crookshank	25.00
Benefit dinner, patriotic societies	75.00

Steps are being taken by the committee to hasten, if possible, the discharge of the men whose families have been assisted and correspondence has been entered into with the Washington authorities relative to the method of procedure. In the meantime, these families at home will be amply provided for under the supervision of the committee. The committee wishes to renew its appeal for additional funds, which are certain to be required. Such funds may be left at the newspaper offices or at the Chamber of Commerce or handed to the officers of the organization.

If any families of Company L, who are in need of assistance, have been overlooked in this distribution, the committee in charge of the distribution will be grateful to receive such information.

At a well attended W. R. C. meeting, Mrs. Julia A. Garrison was showered with congratulations and praise for her successful management of the benefit dinner given for the families of Company L by the ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Veterans and W. R. C., and the president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. moved a rising vote of thanks be extended to this efficient chairman, which was seconded by a daughter of a veteran, thus showing they truly appreciated her efforts to make this labor of love a splendid success.

Mrs. Garrison is the mother of L. A. Schlessinger, the popular manager of the West End theater.

To Study Spanish

The boys of Company L wish to study Spanish and as they have in their midst a very capable young man in the person of Dana Keach, son of Attorney and Mrs. E. E. Keach, who is willing to teach them, they are asking for books.

It is very probable that there are many students of Spanish here, who will be willing to donate their beginner's text books or any book which they have unused with. Any who have books may notify Mrs. Keach and she will send them to Nogales.

Dana Keach was to have taught Spanish this summer at the Whittier State school.

N. M. U. DINNER

Miss Marguerite Wallace Is Hostess at Her Country Home Near Hanson

One of the charming meetings of the N. M. U. Club was that yesterday evening at the delightful country home of Miss Marguerite Wallace, near Hanson.

The guests boarded an electric car early in the evening and after receiving a warm greeting from Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and their daughter, enjoyed needlework and conversation until the call for dinner was sounded.

The hospitable board was centered with Chinese asters, in the hues of lavender and white and there were so many good things to eat, prepared by the capable hands of Mrs. Wallace, who has a famous reputation as a cook, that it was time to start for home, when the delectable meal was finished. Miss Zimona Thomas gracefully assisted the hostess in serving.

The young people were given the privilege of seeing the many interesting curios gathered by a son of the household who was with the army in the Philippines and also the wonderful tressoune of Mrs. Wallace, which she still has intact.

The ride home in the big farm wagon was not the least happy feature of the evening. The guests included Misses Zelma Sturgeon, Frances and Gertrude Potts, Joy Barber, Adeline Hill, Alice Wasser and Hazel Stockslager.

The next meeting will be held with the Misses Potts.

Daughters of Veterans The Daughters of Veterans will meet on Monday next at 2:30 at G. A. R. hall.

Author Visits Here Miss Lilian Talbert, who has been visiting Miss Lulu Finley of French street during the last week, left for her home in Berkeley this morning.

Miss Talbert is president of the Teachers' Club of Berkeley and the teachers here know her from her books, "The Life and Literature Readers."

Miss Cornell to Sing Miss Edith Cornell, who recently conducted the entertainment for the Roosevelt school so successfully, will appear on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week at the West End Theater.

Set Date for Picnic At a special meeting yesterday of the Veteran Rebekahs' association, final arrangements were made for the annual picnic to be given at Birch Park August 4. This will also be the eleven anniversary of the organization of the association.

Veteran Old Fellows and their families have been invited to attend and have accepted and a pleasant day is anticipated. All committees on arrangements have been appointed.

Treated to Ice Cream After the entertainment at the big tent yesterday the Campers marched back past the James Confectionery store, where every child who carried the flag, given each one at the start of the parade, was treated to ice cream, the number being sixty-five.

The boys hope soon to have a boys' band to play on all occasions as there are some fine musicians among them, who only need encouragement and training to become a credit to Santa Ana.

Building New Home T. H. Shorrill of the Santa Fe office, is building an attractive new home in the 600 block on East Third street. The bungalow will cost about $1900, and H. H. Skiles is the contractor.

Ladies' Canton Has Election The ladies of the Canton held a very pleasant meeting in Odd Fellows hall yesterday and elected the following officers: Mrs. Florence Crawford, president; Mrs. Hattie Peters, vice president; Mrs. Flora Pyle, recording secretary; Mrs. Gertrude Geyer, financial secretary, and Mrs. Blanche Liebig, treasurer.

Following the meeting a delicious collation was served in the dining room above stairs, the committee being composed of the following: Mmes. J. H. Kerch, J. E. Liebig, C. P. Matern, Morrison, O. N. Maryatt, Norton. The tables were beautifully decorated with zenas and dusty miller and pink amaryllis. The menu consisted of hot biscuits, peach mangoes, macaroons, fruit and tea.

Slumber parties or slumberless parties, both of which names are applicable to these jolly functions, seem to be very popular of late and interviews with those fortunate enough to be invited prove them to be the "best ever" in the way of having a good time.

The latest party heard from was that at the home of Miss Myrtle Jamison at 711 West Fifth street, which was the scene of much merry-making last evening when six girls gathered there.

Croquet was enjoyed from 4 until 6 o'clock, when a delightful dinner was served, after which the girls journeyed to the West End Theater to see "The Million Dollar Husband."

After the show the girls serenaded several homes.

A midnight raid on the pantry took place headed by Miss Otha Shields and in the wee sma' hours of the morning, sleep finally descended upon the house.

A delightful breakfast was served at 9:30 this morning.

Those present were Misses Bessie Bower, Jessie Johnson, Sallie Covington, Ireta Coulson, Otha Shields, Dorothy Newman and the hostess, Myrtle Jamison.

Annual Outdoor Meeting The B. B. Rogers W. C. T. U. is invited to attend an all-day meeting to be held at the beautiful home of Mrs. Yeoman of North Broadway, Anaheim, on Wednesday, July 26. Luncheon will be served by the Anaheim Union.

These meetings are held every year and are red letter days for the W. C. T. U. A good program always assured.

Personal

Misses Inez, Louise and Corle Crane have gone to Pasadena to spend the week end with friends.

Mrs. M. E. Kaufmann, who is spending the summer at Long Beach, made a business trip here yesterday.

Mrs. G. E. Benson of Needles, Cal., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Briggs on North Broadway. She will remain a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts left for Yosemite today. They will join their son, C. E. Roberts, and wife and daughter in Los Angeles. The party will be absent two weeks.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Bushard will be sorry to hear that she is quite seriously ill.

Mrs. Susie Clark and little daughter are here from Corona upon a week's visit to her uncle, Jas. D. Ott, and family.

C. Scrogges, a former business man of this city, being the founder of oil supply stations in this city, is here from Los Angeles for a few days. He is the guest of Adrian McCain.

Miss Lenore Shirley, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. H. T. Trueblood, for the past three weeks, will leave tomorrow for her home at Enid, Oklahoma.

Miss H. Roemer of Tustin went to San Diego today, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Alma Neiman, and the latter's friend, Miss Ida Westerman, of Cincinnati, Ohio. They will visit the exposition for a few days.

Miss Flossie Zerman went down to Capistrano this morning for a week-end visit at the home of Miss Minnie Stroschein.

In the Superior Court of the County of Orange, State of California.

In the Matter of the Estate of Daniel Webster Cross, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that Friday, the 4th day of August, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Court Room of Department No. 2 of this Court, in the City of Santa Ana, County of Orange, State of California, has been appointed as the time and place for hearing the application of J. W. Madril, praying that a document bearing the name of this Court, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of the said deceased, be admitted to probate, that the Letters Testamentary be issued thereon to J. W. Madril, at which time and place all persons interested therein may appear and contest the same.

Dated July 23, 1916.

W. B. WILLIAMS, County Clerk.

DON W. WOODS, Attorney for Petitioner.

NOTICE INVITING BIDS

Santa Ana, Calif., July 18, 1916.

In pursuance of a resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Orange, Cal., adopted July 18, 1916, directing this notice, notice is hereby given that the said Board will receive at its office at the Court House in Santa Ana, or at or before the hour of 2 o'clock P. M. of August 2, 1916, sealed bids or proposals for the construction of a 200-foot five-span timber bridge across Santiago Creek on Santiago Blvd. about two and one-half miles east of Villa Park.

Bids must be made on the form provided for the purpose, addressed to the Board of Supervisors, Orange County, Cal., and marked "Bid for Santiago Creek Bridge."

The work must be done in accordance with the profiles, plans and specifications adopted by the Board of Supervisors on file in the office of said Board and in the office of the County Surveyor, in the Court House.

Each bidder must submit with his proposal a satisfactory check certified by a responsible bank and payable to the order of the County of Orange, for an amount not less than ten per cent of the aggregate sum of the bid, as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into the contract if the same is awarded to him, and in event of failure to enter into such contract said check shall become the property of the County.

The amount of the bond to be given to secure a faithful performance of the contract for said work shall be 25 per cent of the work or labor of any kind done thereon, and also will be required to furnish a certificate that he carries compensation insurance covering all his employees upon work to be done under contract which may be entered into between him and the said county for the building of said bridge.

Under these specifications the County of Orange will furnish the cement, f. o. b. cars Villa Park.

Copies will be furnished intending bidders upon application to the County Surveyor of said County.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Orange, State of California.

W. B. WILLIAMS, County Clerk.

Tustin Budget

Edited by Miss
Florence StoneNEW FIRE ENGINE IS PARADED; READY FOR INSTANT CALL

A slight ripple in the Tustin summer calm was caused Wednesday evening when the new fire engine was rushed out of the Arrow garage and taken to the school grounds for inspection by the people.

A good many came out to see it. The engineer at the garage, who understood the working of the machine, was on hand to give an exposition of its appurtenances. The swift with which ladders can be run to the top of a building as high as the school house, was demonstrated.

The engine is equipped with two 40-gallon chemical tanks and 200 feet of chemical hose. Separate from this, a small cart can be attached, which carries 250 feet of 2 1/2-inch rubber-lined water hose. This can be used when a fire occurs within that distance of the water plugs in Tustin. If it is further removed the chemicals will be used.

TUSTIN PERSONALS

DISQUALIFIED
MEN BE HOME
IN A FEW DAYS

NOGALES, July 22.—Col. Schreiber Friday night made definite announcement that 124 men would be returned to Southern California from the Seventh Regiment on account of the physical disqualifications. Only one commissioned officer was rejected, Capt. J. L. McBride of Company L, Santa Ana. This leaves only 124 officers and men.

SPLENDID WORK DONE DURING
THE YEARChamber of Commerce Review of Activities Shows
Excellent Results

After the fire engine display on Wednesday evening, on the school grounds, a goodly number of Tustin people gathered in the auditorium for the Chamber of Commerce meeting.

The meeting was called to order by the president, I. L. Marchant. After the reading of the minutes and other reports, the annual report of the treasurer was read, giving a recapitulation of the good work done by the Tustin Chamber of Commerce during its first year. A new fire engine paid for, new street lights in and new street signs, and all bills paid with $6.80 in the treasury. A balance on May Day of about $3 was ordered paid.

A rising vote of thanks was given to the committee having in charge the fire equipment, and the chairman of the committee gave the people thanks for their support.

It was suggested that the telephone number of the Arrow garage be kept by telephones. The engine will be kept there for the present.

A triangle gong is being prepared also for use in case of fire. The first thing to do is to call the engineer at the garage, after which the gong will be sounded for his volunteer assistants. A penalty for a false alarm was spoken of, but no action taken as yet.

The matter of a peace officer for Tustin was then the topic for discussion. The speeding of automobiles and noise of motorcycles together with other annoyances seem to call for some one to whom appeal can be made. It was suggested that Tustin could be made a separate township and a peace officer appointed.

A committee of one consisting of Supervisor Jasper Leek was appointed to look after the legal aspect of the case. After his report is received the matter can again be taken up.

It was suggested that this officer could also be made chief of the Tustin fire department, send in the alarm and take the machine out.

A cordial invitation was given the Tustin Chamber of Commerce to attend the meeting of the Associated Chambers next Wednesday night to be held at Seal Beach. The banquet in connection with the Associated Chambers meeting will be held at 6:45. The names of those who will attend should be sent in as soon as possible.

A number of new members were received at the close of the meeting. The seventy-five members who belonged last year, have not all renewed their membership. They are solicited to do this without delay. The dues are 50 cents a year. S. W. Stanley is the treasurer.

ENTERTAINS REBEKAH FRIENDS

Mrs. John Holt Thursday afternoon hospitably entertained her Rebekah lodge friends, Mrs. Della Anderson, Mrs. Mary Hubbard and Mrs. Hattie Peters of Santa Ana and an eastern guest and aunt of Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Eliza Sharp, of Cane Hill, Ark. Mrs. Sharp is making her first visit to California and was delighted with Tustin. Decorations of Lady Washington geraniums and plumous fern were very much admired.

Mrs. Holt served delicious refreshments to her guests.

in the regiment. The departure of the disqualified was postponed because the accounts and records were not completed.

Col. Schreiber says they will leave Tuesday or Wednesday. He also states there is no truth to the rumor that part of these men will be sent to the General Army Hospital at San Antonio.

The rejected men will be given full pay, mileage to the point of enlistment, Pullman ticket, meals en route and amount due from clothing allowance of $43.95.

Col. Schreiber says there is absolutely no foundation to the statement that a part of the Seventh will be sent to Tucson. He announced Friday that the first week in September would be spent on specially-constructed rifle ranges five miles north of Nogales.

Company commanding officers received instructions to prepare their equipment for this range practice.

SAN DIMAS CITRUS
POOL BRINGS BIG SUM

SAN DIMAS, July 21.—Announcement is made that as a result of the splendid prices being received the members of the San Dimas Lemon Association will receive $100,000 on the third pool of the season, which opened April 3 and closed May 10. Manager Harwood states that this is proving the best season experienced in many years.

The La Verne Orange Growers' Association is now distributing $42,000 as the returns on the first pool of navel shipments sent out this season.

ONE WAY TO GO TO SLEEP

"Being frequently a victim of wakefulness, I had come to accept it as a matter of course, and, realizing on one occasion that a sleepless night lay before me, as my last scheme for passing the wearisome, slow-dragging hours I began reviewing a delightful novel which I had recently read and re-read with great enjoyment."

I began at the beginning trying to picture vividly in imagination every incident and scene in the early life of a little waif. I had proceeded but a little way when attention seemed suddenly to have elapsed.

My first feeling was that of indignation and disgust at being unable to follow the story, my next that the time was broad day instead of midnight, and that I had just awoke from seven hours of refreshing, dreamless sleep.

The following night, eager to test my newly-found specific, I picked up the story where I had dropped it the night before, with the same result, and now no longer dread the slow march of sleepless hours. On the slightest indications of wakefulness I joyfully resort to the record of the heroine's experiences, beginning where I last ended—for after two years or more I have not been able to complete the book.

I will not attempt to explain the psychology involved in this incident. There are doubtless many books of equally absorbing and not exciting interest that may meet the purpose, but I trust the bare facts as given may prove suggestive and helpful to some reader.—H. M. W., Outlook.

COREOPSIS CLUB PICNIC

Under a wide spreading walnut tree at the home of Mrs. E. E. Smith on Wednesday the members of the Coreopsis Club enjoyed a perfect day at their annual picnic.

For the beauty and grace of its far reaching branches and lovely leaves this tree cannot be surpassed anywhere, and to have the leisure to sit under its protecting arms on a day just warm enough to enjoy all the stray zephyrs would be a genuine pleasure to any weary traveler.

A circle of easy chairs on one side of the tree just in sight of the tennis court was invitingly arranged, while the other side furnished ample room for a long table on which to spread that most important adjunct of a picnic, the picnic dinner. The first course of the dinner was the product of a wienie bake. They were toasted on coals. After the salads, vegetables and meats, came pie, cake, ice cream and coffee.

After dinner the younger members of the club engaged in frolics and exercises, but they finally settled down to the accustomed fascinating needlework in the circle of easy chairs.

Those who enjoyed the day were Mrs. Claude Norton, Mrs. Fealon Matthews, Mrs. Charles Lambert, Mrs. Alton Alderman, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Ann Swartz, Mrs. H. E. Matthews, Mrs. S. L. Hart, Mrs. Ed Smith, Miss Avis Smith and Miss Bernice King. Mrs. L. M. Brazee was a guest of the club.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary Society was held Thursday afternoon at the church. The topic, "Chinese, Koreans and Japanese in the United States," was presented by Mrs. P. H. Ebel and Mrs. George Hatfield.

Account was given of the wonderfully successful evangelistic services recently conducted at Chinatown in San Francisco by Dr. Hugh Gilchrist, pastor of the Chinese Methodist church there. His preaching has had a remarkable influence in bringing hundreds into his church. He is assisted by a large Chinese choir. At special children's services more than 450 Christian Chinese children were present.

There was a review of the progress of Christianity among Koreans and Japanese through reports of Presbyterian missionaries.

A report of the last Los Angeles Presbyterian meeting was given by Mrs. G. W. Pollard.

THE CITY POLICE

CITY POLICE ARE CAMPAIGNING
RIDERS

The city police force has inaugurated a campaign against sidewalk riders and are patrolling all sections of the city with a view to putting a stop to the use of sidewalks by bicyclists. Numerous complaints have been made recently by property owners about the insolence of some boys who persist in using the sidewalk even where there are paved streets. A South Broadway resident stated this morning that boys were altogether too free in riding on the sidewalks on that thoroughfare, and made particular complaint against one lad who seems to think a pedestrian has no right to the walk.

One arrest was made yesterday. Manuel Lopez was the victim, and he has $5 less money than he had before he turned his bicycle on to the sidewalk for an easy spin on one of the principal streets of the city. City Recorder Heathman levied the assessment against him, and by way of good measure gave him a little fatherly advice along the lines of keeping on the street instead of taking to the sidewalk.

J. C. Dunn, of Los Angeles, was also a visitor at the office of the recorder yesterday. He left $10 to compensate the city for the damage he did by fracturing the speed ordinance. He was speeding on North Main street, and went through Motor Cop Cook's trap while Cook was concealed at the observation point.

CONCRETE WALL
WILL PROTECT BANK FROM FRESHETS

The Santiago creek bank on the north line of the property of M. Nisson on Main street which has withstood the surging waters of the Santiago creek for many winters will no longer have to stand the butt of the torrents. Nisson is having a concrete retaining wall put in along the bank, with the expectation that it will relieve his land of possible damage during the winter, when the heavy floods come down from the mountains. The dirt bank has stood the test for many years, but last season's freshets cut into it a little, and Nisson is taking time by the forelock to prevent a repetition.

Paul Carnahan and H. C. McCord have the concrete work in hand.

The wall will be 400 feet long, eight feet high and will vary from eight to twelve inches in thickness. The base is twelve feet under the surface of the creek and rests on a solid foundation of clay.

The cost of the protection work will be about $2700 and the contractors will be engaged three or four weeks in the buildings.

ALLEGED RAISIN TRUST
UNDER U. S. SCRUTINY

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—Activity on the part of agents of the United States Department of Justice disclosed yesterday a federal scrutiny into the operations and affairs of the California Associated Raisin Company, a $1,500,000 corporation, which is referred to by independent packers as the "Raisin Trust of America."

It also developed that this investigation has been in progress at intervals since 1913, and coincident with the recent renewal of contracts between packers and growers of California, federal authorities redoubled their efforts to ascertain whether or not the California Associated Raisin Company has harbored a monopoly in restraint of trade as prohibited by the terms of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Why Take A Gambler's Chance with Your Money

Don't you know that almond growing is one of the easiest, quickest, most profitable (if you select the right locality) orchard crops in the state of California?

Do you know that according to Government reports, our consumption of nuts is increasing 15 per cent per annum? That 85 per cent of the almonds we consume are imported from Spain, Italy and France? That California produces 95 per cent of all the almonds produced in the United States?

Do you know the almond territory is more limited in area than that of the English Walnut and that Paso Robles Almonds were awarded the Gold Medal and a Bronze Plate for quality at the St. Louis Exposition? Don't you know that the TEMPLETON-PASO ROBLES district is being recognized as the coming almond district of the State? That many, many thousands of trees are being set out in this territory? In fact there is an almond boom there.

Would it interest you to know that young orchards there are producing $50.00 per acre in their third year?

Let me tell you more about the almond, because you can't get the ALMOND STORY IN A NUT SHELL!

Then there are so many other interesting facts about the Templeton-Paso Robles country that you should know, that I am sure if you drop me a one cent postal with your name and address plainly written the booklet I will send you will give you much valuable information.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Satsumas were cut to 60 and 75 cents a lug, Burbanks 60 to 80 cents a lug and Damsons 70 to 85 cents a lug. French prunes are more common at 60 to 75 cents per lug and Wixom plums are in strong demand at fairly high prices. Pears are now coming into the city in heavy quantities and as a result prices have had a tendency to soften for the last week. Yesterday the best grade of shipping stock was selling for $1.75 to $2 a packed box. To the local trade jobbers are asking 3 to 4 cents a pound for Bartlett pears in lug boxes. The 1916 crop of Bartlett is proving larger than had been estimated at the beginning of the summer and so far quality has been exceptionally good. Calmyra fresh figs are much easier at 90 cents to $1 a box and black figs are also a trifle cheaper. Cantaloupes are firm but watermelons are rather too plentiful, shipments now arriving from practically all directions. Ruling quotations for the best melons are 1 to 1 1/4 cents a pound.
Potatoes continue to grow in strength and the question for locals was boosted again yesterday. Lug boxes are now selling for 75 to 80 cents and sacks for $2.10 to $2.25. Sweet potatoes, on the contrary, are slightly easier and the best grades were being offered to the trade yesterday at $1.75 to $1.90 a hundred. Cabbage has again dropped in the vegetable list and 90 cents to $1 a sack seems to be the universal price. Okra is more plentiful and in consequence the price for the same has been cut to 11 and 12 1/2 cents a pound. Peas, cucumbers and tomatoes are all easy.

CURRENT PRICES

TWO-INCH STRIP NOT AMERIGE'S SAYS COURT

Judge W. H. Thomas Gives Judgment, but No Damages in Queer Law Suit

Judgment in a case that to an outsider appears to involve nothing of consequence was rendered yesterday by Judge Thomas. It was all over a 2-inch strip of this terrestrial sphere. This strip, over which attorneys were hired and a lawsuit heard, lies at Fullerton.

Mrs. Amanda Rothaermel was the plaintiff. She employed Attorneys Head & Marks, and an action was brought against George H. Amerige, who employed Attorney S. M. Davis to defend him. The complaint alleged that there was a two-inch strip of Mrs. Rothaermel's land that was occupied by a portion of Amerige's brick wall. For that, Mrs. Rothaermel demanded judgment decreeing that she has title to the two inches of space, and further she asked $500 damages because Amerige had taken possession of that particular two inches of space.

The testimony convinced Judge Thomas that while Amerige's foundation wall did occupy about an inch, may be an inch and an eighth or an inch and a quarter, or may be even two inches, the wall above the foundation was absolutely and entirely over upon Amerige's property.

Judge Thomas decreed that Mrs. Rothaermel does own the two-inch strip, but he failed to find that any damages should be given to her. The judgment was that she be given no damages.

Sues for Possession

Frank O. and John C. Forster of San Juan Capistrano have brought suit against R. Armstrong for restitution of a house near the mission town. The house was turned over several months ago to Richard Clapp without rent on a month to month tenancy. Armstrong claims to have a sub-lease to it from Clapp. Williams & Rutan are attorneys for the plaintiff in a suit to restore possession to them.

For Defendant

Judgment for the defendant was given by Judge Thomas in the case of Jennie Wells against Avakyon. The case was up on appeal from Huntington Beach, where judgment of $150 was given Mrs. Wells. Suit was brought upon the ground that Avakyon had closed a street so that the plaintiff lost the sale of gravel that could not be hauled excepting over the street. Judge Thomas in his decision stated that while the testimony showed that a sign had been stuck up closing the street no one paid any attention to it, and there was no testimony to show that it prevented any traffic.

CHAUTAUQUA BE EARLIER NEXT YEAR. APRIL OR IN MAY

Complete Satisfaction Marks the Feeling of Those Who Attended

Over sixty names have been secured to guarantee the coming of the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua to Santa Ana next year.

"We will have Chautauqua next year," declared Rev. Paul E. Wright, who has been the Hercules and the Mercury of the Chautauqua committee. "What is more, we will have it in April or May. We were placed at a disadvantage this year by having the Chautauqua come in July, the Chautauqua people being unable to give us a date earlier. We are going to have it next year before school closes, before any of the school teachers leave for the summer."

A few people realize what a tremendous load fell upon the shoulders of Chairman Wright and other active members of the committee this year. Rev. Wright had to carry the biggest share of the load, and what is more he carried it successfully. In comparison, the engineering of next year's Chautauqua ought to be comparatively plain sailing.

Under the contract the local committee guaranteed to sell $1800 worth of season tickets. People were slow to buy season tickets. Many of them had never seen a Chautauqua entertainment, and they did not know how good the programs really would be. Under the contract, Rev. Wright was scheduled to turn $1800 over to the Chautauqua manager, J. R. Teagarden, on Saturday, July 15. On that day the chairman had less than $500 on hand. Extension from day to day was given, and in the meantime Rev. Wright was leading a strenuous sales campaign. As people became acquainted with the real worth of the entertainments, the sales were easier.

The local committee had to resort to the rental of chairs at the tent in order to get money with which to meet numerous expenses. G. H. Scott, who had charge of the reserved seats, raised over $150.

"We are about $25 ahead of the expenses," declared Rev. Wright last night in his final talk to the Chautauqua audience of 1915. "And while I am here," continued he, "I want to voice the sentiment of those who have been in touch with Chautauqua work here this year by saying that we hope sincerely that Mr. Teagarden will be assigned to manage the week's Chautauqua for us next year."

On Rev. Wright's suggestion the audience arose and gave the Chautauqua salute to Mr. Teagarden.

In response, Mr. Teagarden, who has made many friends here by his energy, his consideration and his enthusiastic desire to make everything go smoothly and successfully, thanked the audience for the expression of appreciation. He said that he did not know where he would be next year, but if he had his wishes he certainly would be given the Santa Ana assignment. He has relatives living here.

"When you see next year's program," said he, "you may find attractions there that you never heard of. Rest assured, however, that every attraction will be of high standard."

Chautauqua week closed last night with a splendid concert by the Haydn Chorus.

Kiddies Have Big Time

The kiddies of Santa Ana had their inning on the final day of the Chautauqua, and a big day it was for them. Anticipation of the circus feature carried out by the kiddies has been the absorbing topic among the young folks of the city since the Chautauqua opened, and its realization was even greater than the anticipation. The large tent was crowded to capacity yesterday forenoon with the little ones—and men and women who were not particularly interested, but who just "had to go to take the children!"

Nothing was omitted from the performance which would interest and amuse the audience it was intended to amuse. Clowns were there in numbers, with their comic make-ups and their still funnier antics—even pink lemonade was in evidence, likewise peanuts and popcorn. And the zoo—it contained animals of every description.

Pins were wooden money, so far as purchasing a ticket of admission was concerned—admission was absolutely free. The little folks of the city and vicinity were invited to be the guests of the Chautauqua management, and without price.

The usual circus parade preceded the big show at the tent. It was characteristic of the real circus—the parade was late in starting. The procession started from the Washington school grounds and followed Sycamore to Sixth, on Sixth to Broadway, down Broadway to Fourth, east on Fourth to Bush and south on Bush to tent. As the different divisions passed the Sam Stein store they were halted long enough to be "shot"—with a camera.

Little Russell Coleman mounted on a beautiful bay steed was the grand marshal, and his aide was Daniel Cook, who was also mounted on a pretty animal.

various alleged musical instruments and it produced alleged music. Kenneth Baird was the bandmaster, and the members were Harold Adams, Keith Howard, Warren Lowman, Brewster Stevens, Wallace McClure, Virgil Duncan, Karl Wiesseman, Edmund Murphy. The clowns were directed by Naomi Lucas and were composed of Ruth Stevens, Elizabeth Parslow, Dorothy Long, Elizabeth Wright and Mary Elliott.

Leon Townsend was the cop who attempted to maintain order. Thaddeus Powatan Kingrey was the prisoner in the custody of the two cute little policemen in uniform, Kenneth prince and Newell Vandermaast. Miss Elizabeth Baker kept a supervising eye on the young minions of the law.

In the animal division Donald Knight and Philip Manning supported the various contrivances which gave the semblance of a giraffe. Jack Langley and Noble Alexander carried the elephant make-up. Welleth Ride-nour was the ostrich.

The Seven Sutherland Sisters were Elsie Duncan, Florence Skiles, Harriet Koser, Annie Tarver, Cordelia Murphy, Ruth Thomas and Carmen Sloum.

Kenneth Adams was the Cannibal Queen and Charlotte Zimmerman the snake charmer. And the monkeys, they were Barbara and Mary Eleanor Welbon, Beulah Covell, Margaret Gabe, James and Edgar Thomas, Paul Wright and Robert White.

Glady's Swarthout was the strong lady. Dr. Do Nothing was characterized by Marguerite Zimmerman and the members of the Backward family were Olive Lippiatt, Elizabeth Harrington, Carol Frost, Helen Smiley, Elizabeth Bealls, Margaret Bradley, Pearl and Lily Love and Marian and Mary Bruner, the latter two being twins.

Campaigners for "California Dry" formed the first division of the parade, and sang and shouted as they marched along the street. Trumpeters heralded their coming.

In the feats at the big tent, Katherine Morris, Marie Frost and Alberta Zimmerman entertained as Japanese tight-rope walkers; Allan McClure and Edward O'Rear with acrobatic stunts; Charles Reid, Edwin Cox, Edward O'Rear and Russell Patterson, wheelbarrow races; Allan McClure, Charles Reid and Edward O'Rear, tumbling races; Bruce Stevens and Kenneth Baird, boxing.

Miss Lucille McCormack of the Chautauqua had direct charge of the drilling of the children, and she was ably assisted by Miss Koogle and Mr. Donaldson of the Chautauqua, and Miss Cammie Mitchell, Millicent Phillips, Margaret West and E. M. Brown of this city.

Two Irons in the Fire

Perhaps no lady is more anxious to see California go dry than the president of the Belle Rogers Union, Mrs. Julia A. Garrison, and she seizes every opportunity she can to give it a boost.

She managed to keep two irons in the fire this week, for while working for the Company L benefit dinner she was also busy drilling seventy-five young campaigners to take part in the Chautauqua parade and the youngsters responded beautifully, making a splendid showing with their banners, flags and trumpets.

Nineteen fair girls with sashes and crowns represented the nineteen states that have already gone dry. The young campaigners wore red caps and pennants. There were red caps and pennants galore and all followed the call of the buglers, Harold Matthews and Harold Viera, singing their songs and giving their yells, with a vim!

Mrs. Garrison was heard to remark that it was the cleanest, nicest band of children she had ever seen and as a reward the little folks were all ushered into James' where they were given a treat of ice cream.

The first Tithday in August at 2 p. m., these youngsters and any others who wish to join them, are to meet again at the Armory hall.

The state organizer will be present and plans will be laid for the young campaigners' band to again shout: Clear the track! Beat the drum! Up with the Flag! Down with rum! California Dry is our cry! John! Rah! Rah! Hear us shout! John! Barleycorn, get out!

The Afternoon Program

The Haydn chorus gave an enjoyable prelude in the afternoon to Hon. W. I. Nolan's lecture on "We, the People." The chorus is composed of eight young people, well trained and their splendid accompaniment under the direction of Roland Witte.

They sang all sorts of songs from grave to gay, including two negro camp meeting songs, which were the hit of the program. Several old hymns, such as "Onward Christian Soldiers," and "I Love to Tell the Story," were interspersed and a duet, "Whispering Hope," was beautiful.

Hon. W. I. Nolan of Minneapolis is a fine speaker. And he is a humorist, which is natural as he is an Irishman. He is a master story teller and his rendition of Eugene Fields' "John Smith, U. S. A.," was thoroughly enjoyed.

ENTERTAINMENT PLANS FOR BIG CO. L BENEFIT MATURING

Local Performers to Assist in Program to Be Given Friday Evening

Determined to make the entertainment one of the best of its kind ever seen in this city, the committee having in charge the program to be given at Elks' hall on Friday evening, July 28, for the benefit of the families of the members of Company L is sparing no effort to round all details into shape.

Among the delightful features that have been secured through the cooperation of local performers is a 25-minute light comedy sketch, "Her Neighbor's Creed," by Margaret Cameron, in which Warren Fletcher and Miss Gladys Thomas will appear.

Raymond Beebe has agreed to give a sleight of hand performance. Solos will be given by Maurice Phillips, Miss Louise Montgomery and R. R. Miles. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Bishop will sing a number of duets. A reading will be given by Miss Winifred Roberts.

Tickets will be placed on sale Monday morning at A. J. Padgham's jewelry store.

The entertainment committee, appointed by J. A. Cranston, chairman of the main committee, and E. M. Nealley, as follows: E. C. Phillips, chairman; Harry Garstang, Mrs. Victor Montgomery, Mrs. C. F. Crose, Mrs. W. H. Thomas, Mrs. A. J. Padgham and Mrs. I. D. Annis.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT BY CUTTING IN AUTO IS SENT INTO DITCH

Warrant for Pomona Man Said to Have Jeopardized Lives of Three Persons

The lives of three persons were in jeopardy this morning when an automobile driven by Alfred Zermeno of Lincoln street was forced into a ditch beside the state highway below Tustin. A warrant is out for the arrest of C. W. Grannen of Pomona, accused of responsibility for the accident.

Zermeno stated that this morning Grannen passed his machine, in which Zermeno and his son and one other person were riding, and in turning back to the right Grannen cut in so close that the rear of his machine struck the front of Zermeno's car and threw it into the ditch. The occupants of the machine were severely shaken up, but were not injured. Zermeno sent to a garage for aid.

Zermeno stated that the driver of the offending machine got off the road in some way, and had to turn back, and in that way Zermeno got the machine. He states that the Pomona man struck another machine in much the same way.

Sheriff Jackson telephoned to Ocean-side, where Grannen was stopped. He made arrangements to appear before Justice Cox next Monday morning.

Similar Experience

Another man who is just as angry as Zermeno and for much the same reason, is Joe Brown, driver of a one-horse junk wagon. Brown has sworn to a complaint against H. W. Patton of San Diego, charging that Patton swerved in so close to him that the junk wagon was forced into the ditch.

May Stiffen Fine

"I don't know what I am going to do with these automobilists who cut in," said Justice Cox. "It is far worse to put the lives of people in jeopardy by cutting in than it is to speed, and I think that this court will have to establish a high customary penalty for cutting in."

W. H. Ladd has sworn to a complaint charging Felix Bradley with battery.
